Blockchain

A Lunch & Learn Event

May 16, 2018

12:00 – 2:30 p.m.

being held at

Crowell & Moring LLP

590 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10022

“A presentation of the Blockchain Concept and its utilization by the Insurance Value Chain”

Presented by;

Joseph Calandro, Managing Director for Insurance Advisory at PwC

The IRUA presents these short events for three reasons; Education, Networking and Time.

We realize that taking an entire day to attend various events may inhibit attendance to learn about a fascinating and much desired topic. A Lunch & Learn allows the opportunity to learn from a market leader and provides for additional conversation before and after the presentation. Lunch is provided.

AGENDA OVERVIEW

Registration will open at 11:15 a.m. and the Program will commence at 12:00.

Welcome - John West, Senior Vice President & Partner, Apetrop USA
IRUA Director & Education Committee Co-Chair

Mr. Calandro will explain Blockchain as it exists in its current form as well as what it may become. Further, he will identify how it has been adapted by the insurance value chain to date as well as where there will opportunity to evolve.

There will be time devoted to questions and discussion.
