Stuart Miller is a member of Wilson Elser’s executive committee and co-chair of the national Transportation practice. He frequently assists in pre-suit liability investigations and determination of causation. Retained as counsel of choice by notable retailers and transportation, security and construction companies, Stu enjoys a well-earned reputation for defending high-exposure personal injury claims. He oversees the firm’s 24/7 National Emergency Response Team, an increasingly essential component of the value-added services Wilson Elser offers its clients across all practice areas including catastrophic trucking losses.

Stu is designated national counsel to major transportation and logistics companies, acting as the gatekeeper and national coordinator of all liability claims. He leads mediations, settlement conferences and trials throughout the United States, working alongside local counsel. He also defends several national long-haul and local trucking companies, taxi and livery fleets, and bus and ambulette companies in catastrophic personal injury, uninsured motorist, no-fault and PIP subrogation cases. Understanding the importance of “boots on the ground” in crisis situations,

In addition, Stu is active in the areas of Retail/Hospitality and Construction fields and leads the development of a growing “Active Shooter” specialization, including Premises Liability Crisis Response & Management.

Stu is admitted to the Bar in New York, New Jersey and Florida and before the U.S. District Court, District of New Jersey.

Stu was a speaker at IRUA’s Annual Conference held in April this year in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.
