Michael Schummer was born and raised in Philadelphia and graduated from Temple University's Actuarial program in 1991. He worked at several large national writers in an actuarial capacity, supporting pricing and operations in the field. After a short stint in Northern California, he moved to American Re (now Munich Re) in Princeton, still in an Actuarial capacity.

Michael moved to underwriting in 2002 and currently has the role of Senior Vice President and a Casualty Team Lead in the Treaty area.
